Learning & Development Conference

Session Speaker: Automate, Augment and Amplify: Unleashing the Employee Experience Using Artificial Intelligence

Anthony is a future workforce advocate with 25+ years global experience working in Fortune 500 and start up organizations. His experience spans global business operations and Human Resources consulting and leadership roles with IBM, Xerox and Paychex. Anthony is a 'creative misfit' at heart and thrives in disrupting traditional systems to reinvigorate human potential. Recent highly recommended reads include '9 Lies About Work' by Marcus Buckingham and Ashley Goodall and 'The Algorithmic Leader' by Mike Walsh.
